SUCCESSION TO SRI KUDLI ARYA AKSHOBHYA TIRTHA SWAMI MUTT, SHIMOGA.

13) Sri Kudli Akshobhya Tirtha Swami Mutt is a Muzrai institution endowed with certain Devadaya Inam Villages. The Swamigalu of the Mutt in his Srimukha dated the 10th April 1936 addressed to the Muzrai Commissioner says that as he was taken dangerously ill and as he apprehended the stoppage of worship, he gave asrama to Vedamurthi Surpur Jagannathachar, Vyakarna Pandit of Sri Uttaradi Mutt Patasala, Bangalore, on the 6th April 1936 under the titular name of Sri Raghuveera Tirtha Swamigalu and requests approval to his action. The Muzrai Commissioner states that the candidate appointed by the Swamigalu to succeed after him to the Peeta is learned and eligible, and recommends that the succession may be recognized. I am of opinion that the recommendation may be sanctioned and the Dewan agrees.

I solicit His Highness gracious approval thereto.

SIR,

Succession to the Sri Kudli Akshobhya Tirtha Swami Mutt.

I have the honor to state that so far back as June 1934 the Swamigalu of the above Mutt applied to me for permission to appoint Ved. Jagannathachar, Vyakarna Pandit of the Sri Uttaradi Mutt Pathasala, Bangalore. Enquiries about the fitness of the candidate were made and the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District reported that the nomination made by the Swamigalu may be accepted as the nominee had a good reputation as a Sanskrit scholar and had amiable manners and was popular. Just at the point of making a recommendation to Government to accept the candidature of Ved Jaganathachar, the Swamigalu sent another communication in which he said that the nomination of one B. Krishnachar who had passed the Tarka Vidwat Examination and had been the Agent of the Mutt for the last 10 years may also be approved and that he would give Asrama to either of the two. it was felt that the Swamigalu was undecided about the appointment of a successor, he was told that the nomination of two candidates cannot be approved and no action would be taken until he made a definite selection.

2. On 7th April 1936, the Swamigalu sent a telegram intimating that Asrama was given to Surpur Jagannathachar the previous day and this is now followed by a Crimukha dated the 10th instant. The Swamigalu states that as he was taken dangerously ill and as stoppage of worship was apprehended he gave Asrama to the candidate originally selected by him under the titular name of Sri Raghuveera Tirtha Swamigalu, and requests that action taken by him may be approved.

3. As the person who has now been inducted into Sanyasrama and appointed to succeed to the Peeta eventually is reported to be learned and eligible to the Peeta, I request that the approval of Government to recognise the succession may kindly be obtained.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. Chentsal Rao

Muzrai Commissioner.
